FOR EVERY CA STUDENT

Multiple attempts are ~~failure~~ part of the journey.

Your attempt count says how long it took you, not what you're worth.

WHERE THIS FEAR COMES FROM

It's society's question, not yours.

WHAT SOCIETY ASKS

"Kitne attempts mein clear kiya?"

WHAT ACTUALLY MATTERS

"Did you clear it, and what did you learn on the way?"

LIVING PROOF

They took more than one attempt. Look where it took them.

THE TRUTH ABOUT ATTEMPTS & JOBS

Your attempts matter for one job only.

First job

Recruiters may look at your attempts (and your rank, if you have one)

Second job

Nobody asks about attempts. They ask what you did in job 1.

Every job after

Your experience, your skills and your results decide your growth.

Attempts are a one-time filter. Experience is a lifelong asset.

LESSON 1 · RCB

17 seasons. No trophy.

2008 2009 2010 2011 2012 2013 2014 2015 2016 2017 2018 2019 2020 2021 2022 2023 2024

🏆 25 🏆 26

Then they won, and won again. That's momentum.

Once you get the method right, the result keeps coming.

LESSON 2 · 12TH FAIL

Manoj Kumar Sharma: failed 12th, then cleared UPSC on his last attempt.

1	2	3	4
Not cleared	Not cleared	Not cleared	Last chance. Cleared, became IPS.

He didn't treat a failed attempt as the end. He treated it as learning.

Exams are a part of life.
They are not the end of life.

Agar dil se lagta hai ki CA kar sakte ho, toh kar sakte ho.

SO HOW DO YOU BUILD THAT MOMENTUM?

Find where it broke: the 4 phases of study

PHASE 1

Conceptual clarity

Tuition + self-study

- ✗ Watched lectures, skipped self-study
- ✗ Backlog piled up
- ✗ Never read the ICAI study material

PHASE 2

Revision

Making it stick

- ✗ Only one revision done
- ✗ Read, but didn't write
- ✗ Avoided weak chapters

PHASE 3

Mock tests

Exam simulation

- ✗ No full 3-hour papers
- ✗ Didn't compare with ICAI suggested answers
- ✗ Ignored presentation & time

PHASE 4

1.5-day revision

Before each paper

- ✗ Started new topics
- ✗ No plan for the hours
- ✗ Skipped sleep, panicked

WHY DID I FAIL? DRILL DOWN

Go to the root cause, not just the subject

1 · Subject level Which subject pulled me down? e.g. Taxation

2 · Chapter level Which chapter is tricky or difficult? e.g. Capital Gains

3 · Topic level Where exactly am I stuck? e.g. Sec 54 & 54F

🎯 Root cause Concept unclear + no practice

✓ Work on that topic: concept + PYQs

✓ Check against ICAI suggested answers

🏆 Clear it in the next attempt

REMEMBER

Find the mistake.
Fix the mistake.
Clear the exam.

Attempts don't define a CA. Persistence does. All the best 💪
